

00:25:38 Leslie D-A Eliz and NB: Can we please be reminded of the dates of the other Town Halls? Thanks very much.

00:26:17 Marcus Lambright, NJMCTWG, New Brunswick: Thurs 10/1 7-8pmThurs 10/8 4-5pm

00:27:13 Leslie D-A Eliz and NB: Thanks Marcus!!

00:27:35 Peggy Redman - New Brunswick: I hope we will all get a copy of your donut graph from the slide presentation. What is the definition of "assets"?

00:27:43 Jeremy Campbell: For any of the committee folks, what gives you the most hope, joy, or excitement as you imagine these new missional communities?

00:27:57 Wendi, NJMCTWG, New Brunswick: Those slides have been sent to Ilene in New Brunswick, who will be sending them shortly

00:28:35 Peggy Redman - New Brunswick: Can you describe (and later send us) working templates for COM, CPM, and other committees?

00:29:26 Jack Lohr - Palisades: We heard that there are already names in the running for the new presbyteries. but that the new missionaries bodies will choose their own names. At the same time, I read that the name needs to be on the incorporating documents, which will be enacted at the beginning. Clarify?

00:31:09 Laura Choi (she/her) - Newton: Jeremy, what excites me is seeing the work and considerations of numerous factors - climate/culture, diversity, interstate/traffic accessibilities, church sizes, $$$, ability for shared resources, etc. - this is the most equitable division of boundary lines. I was really impressed/pleased with the fact that resources/$$$ was not the sole consideration at all.

00:37:22 Jeremy Campbell: Joe Plainfield is a close 5th urban center for north east as well

00:37:49 Laura Choi (she/her) - Newton: Jack, I don't believe that names need to be finalized by day one. Temporary ones - NE, NW, Central, South - can be used until all is approved and finalized at later date (should the new missional community want to change it). Let me look that up and share with you.

00:37:55 Joe Martinoni - Synod/Newton: Yes, I almost mentioned them as well

00:39:24 Laura Choi (she/her) - Newton: Yes, thanks Joe!

00:39:40 Gooitzen van der Wal - New Brunswick: I am worried about the transition process and timeline. It requires "dissolving" current committees and staff of current Presb; Coming together of many congregations we have not met before and starting to setup new committees (?after bylaws?), deciding the staff and committee sizes; finding volunteers. This at the same time that congregations will need support during this transition. Any outline / recommendations. The 11 "questions" are giving a full year to finalize.

00:50:19 Steven McClelland - Palisades: I'd like to commend the Presbyteries of Palisades, Newark and Elizabeth.

00:50:40 Leslie D-A Eliz and NB: That's what Thia Reggio is going to help us do!

00:53:24 Gooitzen van der Wal - New Brunswick: I second the thank you for all the hard work of the committee!

00:56:02 Elise Bates Russell: Thank you for the positive affirmation of this work!

00:56:36 Gooitzen van der Wal - New Brunswick: can we get a copy of the chat? I cannot save it.

00:56:52 Joe Martinoni - Synod/Newton: Yes

00:57:07 Joe Martinoni - Synod/Newton: The chat will be saved with the recording

00:57:28 Elise Bates Russell: Next Town Hall for the state:

00:57:46 Gooitzen van der Wal - New Brunswick: Thank you all!

00:59:03 Jeremy Campbell: I echo Steve McClelland's gratitude for the hard work which many on both working groups, as well as in presbytery leadership, have put in to get us to this exciting point.

00:59:35 Laura Choi (she/her) - Newton: Thurs 10/1, 7-8pm

00:59:49 Marcus Lambright, NJMCTWG, New Brunswick: Thurs 10/1 7-8pm Thurs 10/8 4-5pm
