The Gathering

Welcome to worship with Geneva Presbyterian Church! Whether you're joining us online or in person, we're glad you're here and grateful to be gathered as a community united in Christ. At this time worshippers in the sanctuary will not sing out loud, but if you're online we encourage you to make a joyful noise and sing with all your heart! Everyone is invited to speak liturgies and prayers out loud where indicated in the bulletin.

We greet with open arms and open hearts guests and new church members across the full diversity of life, including differences in sex, gender identity, age, race, ethnicity, national origin, range of abilities, marital status, family structure, financial means, and education.

No matter who you are, you are welcome here and we hope you will feel home at Geneva.

Prelude

Welcome to the Worship of God

Silence and Introit

Call to Worship:

One Voice: We worship God with song and dance,

Many Voices: singing praises and shouting for joy.

One: We worship God with silence and sighs,

Many: grieving for loss and longing for relief.

One: We worship God with prayers and hands,

Many: praying for healing and working for peace.

All Together: This is Sabbath time, let us rest, rejoice, and worship the God who gives us life!

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (below in unison, then silent personal prayers)

Holy One of Israel, we know that you call your people to discipleship, peacemaking, and justice-seeking. Forgive us, O Lord, when we keep our lives just loud enough to drown out your call. Forgive us, O Lord, when we keep our days just busy enough to convince ourselves we have a worthy excuse.

This world is in need of so much healing, so much change. Let it begin with us here and now. Lord, pour out your forgiveness upon us and receive the prayers we offer in silence...

Assurance of Pardon

Joys and Concerns

(The Virtual Church recording is turned off during this portion of the service for privacy. We will resume recording after the Lord's Prayer.)

Prayers of the People; The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Word

Prayer for Illumination (in unison)

Speak to us, Living God, as you have spoken to our ancestors: through the voices of your prophets, the breath of your Spirit, and the life of your Son, so that we may live according to your word; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Old Testament Reading

Psalm 85:8-13

This is the Word of the Lord!
Thanks be to God.

New Testament Reading

Ephesians 1:3-14

Thanks be to God.

Sermon

“Bringing It All Together”

Rev. Patrick McElwaine

Affirmation of Faith /The Apostles’ Creed (in unison)

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic* Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting.

Amen.

About the Music...

Sometimes Fanny Jane Crosby, a prolific 19th-century hymn writer, wrote texts for others to set, and sometimes she created words for tunes others had composed. This text was of the second kind, and the resulting close fit between words and music has made them both popular and inseparable.

J.W. Pepper describes the offertory selection as "A tender prayer, sensitively set to music, the gentle accompaniment and simple, lyrical voice parts combine to create one of the sweetest anthems your choir will ever sing." "The Lord bless you and keep you" is a setting of the Priestly Blessing, also known as the Aaronic blessing, from the Book of Numbers in the Bible (Numbers 6:24–26). The blessing, sung or spoken, is used at the conclusion of worship, baptism, ordination, marriage, and other special occasions in Christian worship. It was chosen to be part of the celebration of the 100th birthday of Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother in 2000, and was sung by the choir of St George's Chapel, Windsor Castle at the wedding of the Duke and Duchess of Sussex in 2018.

This stirring hymn (God of Grace) used at the opening of Riverside Church in New York in 1930 was penned by its widely-known and influential pastor, and it has gained a firm place in English-language hymnals around the world. The Welsh tune name, CWM Rhondda, honors the Rhondda Valley in Glamorganshire.

- Fellowship Breakfast Get-together!

Let's meet for breakfast before church on Sunday, July 11th. Come to Attman's Deli in Park Potomac near the Harris Teeter between 8:30 and 8:45 am. They have a large breakfast menu so there is sure to be something you like. Please email me by Saturday, July 10th to let me know if you would like to come. Rhondaricci56@gmail.com

- Starting July 18: Online-Only Worship For A Few Weeks

Geneva will be switching to "Online-Only Worship" via Zoom for several weeks beginning Sunday, July 18 while we upgrade our Sound Booth/Tech Control area at the back of the sanctuary. This minor construction project will consolidate all of our Video and Sound equipment into one efficient workspace to better support Geneva's worship and ministry. The footprint of the Sound Booth will stay mostly the same while making changes to the space that will meet our needs for many years to come.

The project will require us to completely disconnect all audio and visual equipment in the sanctuary, so we'll pause In-Person worship while the work is in progress and worship exclusively online. We expect the project to take between 4-6 weeks and plan to resume In-Person worship again in mid to late August. If you have questions or would like to know more about the project, please email Tom Sadler at Thomasjsadler@gmail.com.

Thank you for your patience and support while we complete this important project!
