Christ the King Sunday

10:30am

The Gathering

(Welcome to Virtual Church with Geneva Presbyterian Church! We are honored to worship together with you today and grateful we can gather in this way as the Body of Christ. There will be opportunities for responsive readings and sharing prayer requests during worship; please mute and unmute yourself as directed by the worship leaders. The same goes for singing hymns: your microphone will be turned off, so make a joyful noise and sing with all your heart!)

Prelude

Welcome to the Worship of God

Silence and Introit

“O God, Our Help in Ages Past”

#84 (v.1)

St. Anne

Sung by Congregation

O God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Call to Worship

Leader: Siblings in faith, let us worship Christ, the Eternal Son of God.

People: We will honor Christ, God’s Sovereign Love given flesh.

Leader: We will serve Christ, the glorious and humble Good Shepherd.

People: Christ sits enthroned over creation and will come again in glory.

Leader: Hallelujah! All praise and honor belong to Jesus Christ, our Lord and our King!

Opening Hymn

“All Hail the Power of Jesus’ Name”

#106 (v.1, 3)

Coronation

All hail the power of Jesus’ name! Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem, and crown Him Lord of all;
Bring forth the royal diadem, and crown Him Lord of all!

Let every kindred, every tribe on this terrestrial ball,
To Him all majesty ascribe, and crown him Lord of all;
To Him all majesty ascribe, and crown him Lord of all! Amen.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (below in unison, then silent personal prayers)

Almighty God, we acknowledge the Lordship of Christ with our lips but too often fail to honor him with our lives. We worship idols of our own making instead of our servant king. We jostle for position and shoulder aside our neighbors instead of sharing from God’s bounty.

God of kindness, forgive us. You know what. You know why. Hear us as we offer the personal prayers of our hearts...

Assurance of Pardon

Joys and Concerns (The Virtual Church recording is turned off during this portion of the service for privacy. We will resume recording after the Lord's Prayer.)

Prayers of the People; The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

The Christian Calendar

Christ's Time for the Church

ADVENT

Advent is a season of preparation for the coming of Christ: preparation to celebrate Jesus' birth at Christmas, to receive faithfully the risen Christ who comes to us in Word and Spirit, and to await with hope Christ's coming in final victory. The word Advent comes from the Latin adventus, which means "coming."

Dates of the Season: Advent is the four weeks, including Sundays, before Christmas Day.

Colors for the Season: The colors are purple or blue. Purple symbolizes both penitence and royalty, blue is the color of hope.

CHRISTMAS SEASON

Christmas Season is the time of celebration, thanksgiving, and praise for God present with us in Jesus Christ. The name comes from the first service of the season, Christ Mass. Christmas Day was first celebrated on December 25 in Rome sometime between 336 and 354 C.E. A pagan winter solstice festival, the birthday of the unconquered sun, was already celebrated on December 25. Christians adopted that date to celebrate the birth of the Son of God. Christians have often adapted and transformed the customs of the world around them.

Dates of the Season: Christmas Season begins with Christmas Eve or Christmas Day and continues through the Day of Epiphany, January 6.

Colors of the Season: White and gold.

EPIPHANY

The word Epiphany is from the Greek word epiphaneia, which means "manifestation." On the Day of Epiphany, January 6, we celebrate Christ's being revealed to the world and the visit of the wise men, the first Gentiles to whom he was made known. Scripture doesn't say how many wise men came to Bethlehem. At various times tradition has set the number from two to twelve. However, because three gifts are mentioned today, we usually think of three wise men or Magi.

Celebration of Epiphany: When January 6 falls on a weekday, churches that do not have services on the 6th may celebrate Epiphany on the following Sunday.

Colors for Epiphany: White and gold.

LENT

Lent is a season of preparation for the celebration of Easter. The word Lent comes from the Anglo-Saxon lencten, which means "spring," the time of the lengthening of days. At first Lent was a time to prepare new converts for baptism on Easter Eve. Eventually, Lent became a time of reflection and self-examination for all Christians.

Days of Lent: Lent begins on Ash Wednesday and ends on the Saturday before Easter. Lent lasts forty days, not counting Sundays. Sundays aren't counted because Sunday always celebrates Jesus' victory over sin and death.

The Color for Lent: Purple, a royal color that also signifies penitence and preparation.

GOOD FRIDAY

In Old English usage good meant “of God.” Good Friday is God’s Friday: Jesus’ death shows God’s salvation.

The Date of Good Friday: Good Friday is the Friday before Easter.

Colors for Good Friday: The worship space is either void of decoration and color, or black is used.

THE EASTER SEASON

The Easter Season, also known as the Great Fifty Days, begins at sunset on Easter Eve and continues through the Day of Pentecost. At this season we celebrate with joy Christ’s resurrection and ascension and the giving of the Holy Spirit on the first Easter (John 20:22-23) and on the Day of Pentecost (Acts 2).

Date of Easter: Easter Sunday is the first Sunday after the full moon that occurs on or next after March 21, the spring equinox. Easter can be any time from March 22 through April 25. The date may differ in Orthodox Churches.

Colors of the Easter Season: White and gold.

PENTECOST

Pentecost, the fiftieth day after Easter, comes from the Greek word for fiftieth, pentekoste. Greek-speaking Jews called the Jewish Feast of Weeks the Day of Pentecost. Acts tells how the anxious and fearful disciples, who had gathered on the Day of Pentecost, were filled with the Holy Spirit and thereafter preached boldly the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Date of Pentecost: The fiftieth day after Easter.

Colors for Pentecost: Red or red on white. Red, the color of fire, represents the Holy Spirit.

SEASON OF PENTECOST

The Season of Pentecost, called Ordinary Time, is a period of growth. Churches emphasize Jesus’ teachings about the kingdom of God. They engage issues of daily life and concerns of the community, nation, and world. The Season comes after we have remembered Christ’s sacrifice on Good Friday and celebrated his resurrection on Easter and the gift of the Holy Spirit at Easter and Pentecost.

Dates of the Season: From the day after Pentecost through the Saturday before the first Sunday in Advent.

Colors for the Season: The basic color is green symbolizing growth in Christ. White is used on Trinity Sunday, All Saints Day, and Christ the King Sunday.

CHRIST THE KING

This last Sunday of the Christian Year celebrates the coming reign of Jesus Christ.

Date of the Season: The Sunday before the Season of Advent begins, and the last Sunday of the Season of Pentecost.

Colors for the Season: Gold and white.

This Sunday during worship we will receive and dedicate our 2022 pledges and intentions for financial giving in the coming year. We are approaching this new year of life and ministry together with Open Hearts and Open Minds, celebrating God's faithfulness and generosity with faithfulness and generosity of our own. Thank you for making a financial commitment to support God's ministry in and through our church family. We appreciate every gift of every size made in God's name -- our combined efforts will transform lives and hearts this coming year.

If you have not yet had the opportunity to share your pledge or financial giving intentions, you may do so through our church website by clicking here, by returning your physical pledge card in the mail, or by contacting Melissa in the church office at Melissa.genevapotomac@gmail.com or (301) 424-4346.

- Advent Devotional: Advent In Plain Sight by Jill J. Duffield

Advent is beginning on Sunday, 11/28 (the Sunday after Thanksgiving). This year Geneva will be getting a lot of mileage out of one particularly excellent resource, Jill Duffield's new Advent devotional, "Advent In Plain Sight: A Devotion Through Ten Objects." We are encouraging every member of our community to purchase a copy of this devotional for personal, daily reflection as we prepare for Christmas. The link above will help you purchase a copy through Amazon; if you need or would like for the church to provide a copy, please contact Pastor Patrick or Melissa in the church office.

In addition to your own personal Advent preparations, we will also use the book as a jumping off point for Wednesday Bible Study sessions and Pastor Patrick's sermons this coming season. We commend this book to you and hope you will join the entire Geneva family as we prepare for Christ's incarnation this season.

With Blessings,

Carl Perthel, Elder for Christian Education
Pastor Patrick
